

Online and Digital Learning at Ontario's Publicly Funded Colleges and Universities

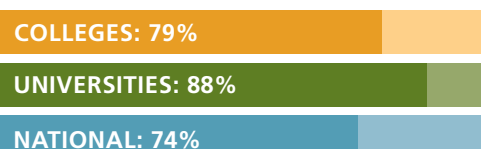

Select results from the 2018 National survey that tracks the development of online and digital learning in Canadian public post-secondary education

Survey conducted between June and August 2018 | Full survey results at onlinelearningsurveycanada.ca

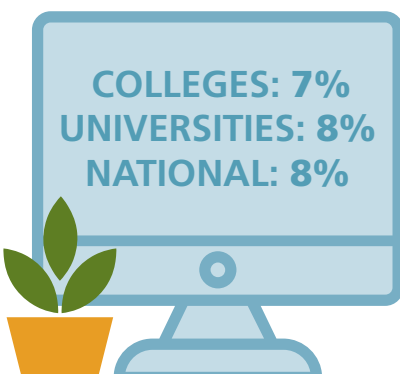

Total survey response rate from Ontario's publicly funded post-secondary education (PSE) institutions

% of Ontario PSE that forecasts an increase in next year's online course registrations

% of all Ontario PSE course registrations that are fully online

% of Ontario PSE that reports overall course registrations increased as compared to last year

% of Ontario PSE that reports an increase in next year's overall course registrations

% of Ontario PSE students who took at least 1 online course

Multimedia and technology use in online learning

LMS

ONTARIO: 100%
NATIONAL: 97%

VIDEO

ONTARIO: 73%
NATIONAL: 65%

LIVE ONLINE LECTURES

ONTARIO: 50%
NATIONAL: 64%

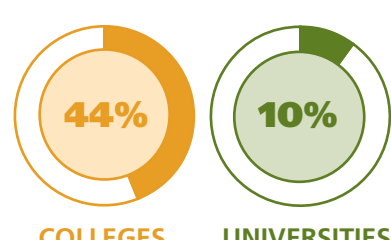

SOCIAL MEDIA

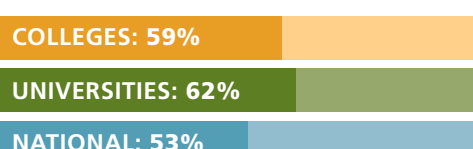

ONTARIO: 51%
NATIONAL: 48%

Likely to offer 10% or more of courses in blended/hybrid format in Ontario PSE

Use of Open Textbooks in Ontario PSE

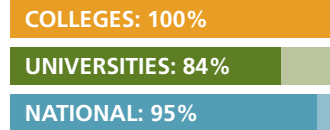

Q: How important is online learning for institutional strategic/academic plans in Ontario PSE?

A: Very to extremely important

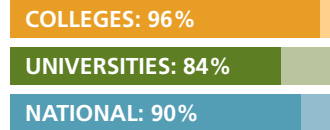

Why is online/blended learning important in Ontario PSE?

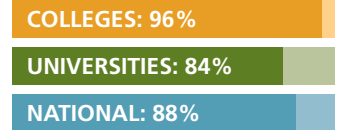

Increase student access

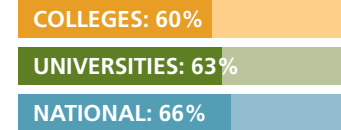

Grow/continued professional education

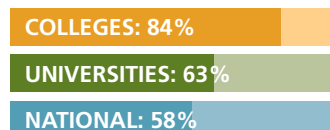

Attract students from outside traditional areas

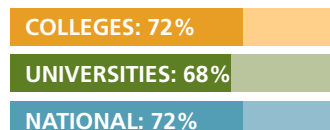

Increase student diversity

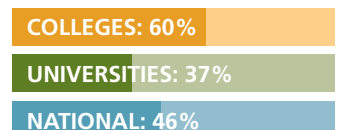

Enhance value of college/university brand

Provides pedagogic improvements

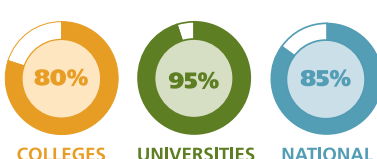

Reduce/contain costs

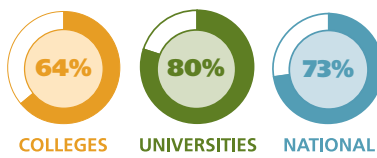

Perceived barriers to online learning in Ontario PSE

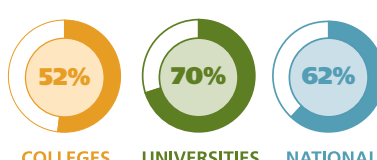

Additional faculty time required

Inadequate training and support

Acceptance of online learning by faculty

Perceptions in Ontario PSE of online courses as having the same quality as face-to-face courses

